Code of Conduct

CCA is committed to creating an environment for students that is safe, nurturing, empowering, and that promotes growth and success.

We require that all our students and visitors respect and assist us in maintaining our facilities by following the rules below:

- Children must be supervised by a parent or guardian at all times.
- No food or drinks in the studios or studio hallways.
- No running in the hallways.
- Non-students are not allowed in the studios. For children under 12 years of age, with teacher permission, a parent or guardian may be present in the studio during the lesson.
- We understand that accidents do happen. If something is soiled or damaged, please notify a staff or faculty member immediately.

CCA reserves the right to suspend or discontinue any student at any time due to lack of interest, extreme absences, behavior problems, tardiness, delinquency in tuition payments, or parental noncompliance with CCA policies.

Art Classes PoliciesClass Materials

All necessary materials will be provided by the Campanile unless otherwise noted. A variety of materials are used in our classes. While they are safe to handle, note that some can permanently stain clothing. Students are encouraged to dress appropriately or bring a smock, old t-shirt, etc. as needed.

Inclement Weather

In the event of inclement weather, please call the Campanile at 715-356-9700 for cancellation/closing information.

Cancellations, Withdrawals & Refunds

The Campanile reserves the right to cancel a class if enrollment is insufficient. If a class is canceled due to insufficient enrollment, any tuition paid will be refunded in full and any registered students will be notified by email or phone. No refunds or tuition credit will be given once the session has begun. Withdrawals must be received at least one week prior to the class start date in order to receive a refund. There is a $25 administration fee for all refunds.
